WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, it was enacted, That if the Eldeſt, or any other Son or Sons of the Perſon who pretended to be Prince of Wales in the Life-Time of the late King James the Second, and ſince his Deceaſe aſſumed the Name and Title of James the Third, King of England, Scotland and Ireland, ſhould, after the Firſt Day of May, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four, land, or attempt to land, or be found in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, or ſhould be found on board any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, being ſo on board with Intent to land in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories aforeſaid, he and they reſpectively ſhould, by Virtue of the ſaid Act, ſtand and be adjudged attainted of High Treaſon to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever. And whereas we have received Information, that the Eldeſt Son of the ſaid Pretender did lately embark in France, in order to land in ſome Part of His Majeſty's Kingdoms, we being moved with juſt Indignation at ſo daring an Attempt, and deſirous that the ſaid Act may be carried effectually into Execution, have thought fit, by the Advice of His Majeſty's Privy Council, and do hereby, in His Majeſty's Name, command and require all His Majeſty's Officers, Civil and Military, and all other His Majeſty's loving Subjects, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to ſeize and ſecure the ſaid Son of the Pretender, whenever he ſhall land, or attempt to land, or be found in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain; or ſhall be found on board any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, being ſo on board with Intent to land in Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions or Territories aforeſaid, in order to his being brought to Juſtice, and to give Notice thereof immediately when he ſhall be ſo ſeized and ſecured, to one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Helſingbourg, July 24, O. S. His Swediſh Majeſty has been at General During's in this Neighbourhood, but as the Houſe is too little for his and Prince William of Heſſe's Retinue, his Majeſty ſet out from thence on Monday laſt, for a Houſe belonging to Count Meyerfeld, which lies about a Swediſh Mile and a half from Yſtadt, where Prince William is to land. According to the laſt Letters from Caſſel, his Highneſs was to begin his Journey as this Day, ſo that if his Stay be not long at Hanover, he is expected in ſeven or eight Days.

From the Sardinian Camp at Montcadel near Alexandria in Italy, July 26, N. S.

OUR Army is reinforcing every Day; and the Auſtrians, with whom we are encamped here, are now 25,000 ſtrong. They alſo expect to be reinforced with two Battalions of Palfi's Regiment, 2000 Recruits for their Foot, and 600 Horſe to remount their Cavalry and Huſſars. We have joined them with 15,000 Men; ſo that at preſent the Whole of our Force amounts to 40,000 effective Men, excluding five Battalions which were left at Tortona, and 10 Battalions that we have in Alexandria. In this laſt Place the Garriſon is very numerous, well provided with Artillery, and with Proviſions for ſix Months. We are encamped along the Tanaro, almoſt as far as Baſſignano upon the Left, and our Right Wing extends to Pavon, a ſhort Mile off Alexandria. The King's Quarters are at Montcadel. We have two Bridges over the Po at Baſſignano, four over the Tanaro in our Front, and a fifth over the River near Alexandria. The Auſtrian Infantry and Light Horſe were encamped in the Villages of Loby and Piovera, but this Morning they are moved to a Place between the Bourmida and the Tanaro, and are extended from the Confluence of theſe two Rivers quite to the Town. M. Gages marched the 24th to within two Miles of Tortona, his Right Wing reaching to near Garoffo, and his Left to St. Julien. He has ſent a large Detachment of Foot to attack Serravalle, and we can hear the Cannon from that Town. If it holds out five or ſix Days, it is all that can be expected from it. It is reported here, that M. Gages would upon this Day advance nearer to Tortona, in order to inveſt it in Form, and to ſubſiſt his Cavalry in the Paveſan on the Side of Voghera, till he can receive the great Artillery, which the Genoeſe are to furniſh him with from Gavi, in order to form the Siege. The advanced Guard of the Infant's Army was Yeſterday reconnoitring along the Right Side of the Bormida, quite up to the riſing Grounds near Alexandria, and a few Shot were exchanged between them and our Huſſars and Waraſdins; but upon the Approach of ſome Companies of Grenadiers, which the King order'd to march out of Tortona, and which his Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs accompanied, they thought proper to retire. This Morning we have received Advice, that the whole Army under the Infant is marched towards Ceriolo and Piovera, oppoſite to and almoſt within two Miles of our Camp, from which we conclude, that they will form an Army of Obſervation whilſt Count Gages is carrying on the Siege of Tortona. It is alſo given out here, that M. Gages has avoided a Junction with the Infant, becauſe he would not be ſubordinate to M. Maillebois. Their three Armies are at preſent ſupply'd with Field Pieces only, and the Genoeſe are to furniſh them with 40 Battering Pieces from Gavi. The Diviſion under M Audybert, conſiſting of 10 Battalions, joined the Army upon the 21ſt. That under the Prince of Baden, conſiſting of ſeven Battalions, is to join us To-morrow. General Sinſſan with 15 Battalions is ſtill in Poſſeſſion of the Eminencies of the Langhes upon Chieraſco and the Mondovi, by Means of the Poſts he has upon the Gaves and Bagnaſco. The Galliſpans, who remained on the Side of Onighia, in order to preſerve the Communication with Provence, have been twice repulſed from the Caſtles of Iſola and Dolce Aqua, which they had twice attempted to retake. M. Lautrec has not yet got out of the Defiles to Barcellonette, as was reported. M. Sinſſan has it in his Power ſtill to join our Army, and act in Concert with us.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army in Bohemia, from the 3d to the 5th of Auguſt, N. S. dated from their Head Quarters at Johannisberg near Konigingratz.

Auguſt 3. THE Pruſſians have formed a Corps of 14000 Men behind the Metau, between Zwol and Richnuweck, including thoſe who were before poſted near Weſſelitz upon the ſame River. They continue in their old Poſts along the Banks of the Elbe, and have lately taken Poſſeſſion of the Angle formed by the Aupa and the Metau near Jaromirz. A Corps of 4000 Men, whom they had detached Yeſterday towards Hortziz, is returned to their Camp. By the Reports of Deſerters, this Detachment was ſent out in order to eſcort a Convoy of Money ſent from Sileſia, and which they conducted to the Army.

Prince Charles gave a grand Entertainment to the Officers of our Army, on Account of the Nameday of the King of Poland.

Upon the 4th, a Pruſſian Deſerter from the Regiment of Life-Guards informed us, that the King of Pruſſia had detached 5000 Horſe and Foot under the Command of the Prince Dietric d'Anhalt Deſſau, into Sileſia.

We

We had Advice from Colonel Wilczewski, that a Corps of 6000 Pruſſians was again arrived in the Neighbourhood of Hortziz, deſign'd probably to eſcorte the Convoys which were expected at the Pruſſian Army by that Road.

This Morning Part of the Pruſſian Right Wing foraged at Stratſchow.

A Battalion, conſiſting of three Companies, amounting in the whole to 500 Men, arrived at Prince Charles's Quarters from Tranſilvania. They are called Saxons, and the greateſt Part of them are originally from Hermanſtatt.

Upon the 5th a Tranſilvanian Regiment of 1000 Horſe alſo came in to the Auſtrian Camp, commanded by Colonel Sinkereſti. They will be ſent to join the Corps under General Nadaſti, who is ſtill poſted on this Side the Metau to obſerve the Motions of the Pruſſians, who are conſiderably reinforced on the other Side of the ſaid River.

Prince Charles alſo expects 2400 Pandours, and a like Number of other irregular Troops, who are upon the Road from Upper Sileſia, in order to join the Army here.

Berlin, Auguſt 10, N. S. We are making Preparations here for an Expedition of the utmoſt Conſequence. Sixteen Pieces of Cannon of 24 Pounders, beſides ſeveral others of a ſmaller Bore, and ſome Field Pieces, were taken out of the Arſenal Yeſterday. The ſixteen Pieces were embarked, together with a great Quantity of warlike Stores, and are to be tranſported down the Elbe towards Magdebourg; the others are to be ſent to Franckfort upon the Oder and Croſſen. The four Battalions from the Dutchy of Cleves are already in March, and the Reigning Prince of Deſſau will remain here till the 20th, when every Thing will be in Readineſs. A conſiderable Corps of our Troops is poſted at Buntzlau in Sileſia, upon the Frontiers of Upper Sileſia.

Hambourg, Auguſt 11, N. S. Baron Korff is arrived here from Kiel, where, it is ſaid, his Commiſſion has been to declare the Majority of the young Duke of Holſtein, and to prepare Matters for regulating a new Adminiſtration. The Prince Succeſſor to the Crown of Sweden has been ill, and reported to have been in Danger, but it is now written from Stockholm, that he is perfectly recovered from his late Indiſpoſition, and that his Princeſs is ſix Months gone in her Pregnancy.

Hague, Auguſt 17, N. S. An Officer arrived here To-day with the News of the Reddition of Dendermonde, after a Reſiſtance of leſs than one Day. The whole Garriſon is by the Capitulation incapacitated to ſerve in any Shape or Place till January 1747. Prince Waldeck being on a reconnoitring Party towards Aſſche, on the 12th Inſtant, with about 900 Dutch, fell in with a Detachment of French Dragoons, Graſſins, and Uhlans, almoſt double the Number of his Eſcorte, and had the good Luck to beat them off, with the Loſs only of one Officer and three or four Men on his Side; after having killed a Colonel and a good Number of the Enemy, and taken a Captain of Dragoons, and about a Score of private Men Priſoners. The little Caſtle of Serravalle defended itſelf on the 2d Inſtant, though the whole Allied Army lay round it, and the Trenches had been opened twelve Days before it.

Whitehall, Auguſt 10.

Yeſterday arrived here from Hanover, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers with Orders for the immediate Departure of the Yatchs to Helvoetſluys, his Majeſty having been pleaſed to declare his Intention to return ſpeedily to England.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto William Pepperell, Eſq; of the Province of New England, in North America, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great-Britain.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 10.

In Purſuance of His Majeſty's Pleaſure, the Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Peter Warren, and the Honourable John Byng, Eſqrs. Rear Admirals of the Blue.

Admiralty Office, Auguſt 10.

The following Advices from Eaſt India are certain, and may be depended on, being given by an Officer of the Eaſt India Company's, juſt arrived in England.

The Deptford, Capt. Barnet, Commodore, and the Preſton, Lord Northesk, of 60 and 50 Guns, ſeparated from the Medway, Capt. Payton, and the Diamond, Capt. Moore, of 60 and 20 Guns, ſometime after they left Madagaſcar, where they had been for Water and Proviſions; the two firſt went for the Streights of Sunda, and thence to the Streights of Banca, and the two laſt proceeded for the Streights of Mallacca; the Commodore and his Conſort diſguiſed their Ships by painting, &c. after the French and Dutch Manner; after being ſome Time at Anchor in the Streights of Banca, appeared the three French Company's Ships, laden from Canton for Europe, the Dauphin Capt. Butler, the Hercules Capt. Dufrein, Le Jaſon Capt. Delamettrie; the Engliſh Ships hoiſted Dutch Colours, and, as ſoon as the French came near, they lowered the Dutch Colours and hoiſted Engliſh, calling at the ſame Time to ſtrike theirs for the King of England, which not being done, the Commodore gave the French Capt. Butler a Broadſide, which he and his Conſorts returned, and a ſharp Engagement enſued for the Space of three Hours, during which the Dauphin with a Cannon Shot carried away Commodore Barnett's Tiller

Tiller Rope, which disconcerted him for some Time.

The Hercules and Jason, by Reason of the little Breeze and their Distance, could not in Time come to the Dauphin's Aid, and jointly attack the 50 Gun Ship, while the other could not for some Time steer, which Circumstance it is said might have given Occasion to the Hercules to escape, sailing better than the rest; after a brave Resistance they were forced to strike; then the Commodore sent Officers and Men to take Possession, and to bring the French Officers on board his Ship, where he received them like a gallant generous Officer, shewing them all the Favour and Friendship depending on him, and usual in such Cases; the like good Treatment received the rest of the Gentlemen sent on board the Preston, Lord Northesk.

The St. Louis, Captain Johannes, laden from Canton and bound to Mauritius, was taken some Days afterwards by Captain Cumming in a Privatier of 30 Guns from England.

The two Chief Supra Cargos, Messieurs Margrin and La Val, with the three second Captains, and two Officers, were, by Order of the Commodore, put on Board the English China Ships, and the rest, with the Ships, carried to Batavia.

The other two Ships in their way to the Streights of Malacca called at Achin, where they found a French Privatier, fitted out and sent by the Company to cruize in the China Seas; they carried her with them through the Streights of Malacca, and in the Way took a French Ship from Manilla, said to be rich. When we came through the Streights of Banca, these two Ships were lying with the two Prizes disguised like their Consorts who took the three French China Men, of which they had no Account, but being told by us, that the French Ships had left Canton long before us, they thereupon resolved to go to their Rendezvous at Batavia.

Admiralty-Office, August 6, 1745.

Several of His Majesty's Ships, fitting out for the Sea in the Ports of this Kingdom, being in immediate Want of a Supply of Seamen for present Service, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have, with the Approbation of their Excellencies the Lords Justices, ordered every Sixth Seaman to be taken from the Crew of all Ships or Vessels having Protections, Boys under Eighteen Years, and old Men exceeding Fifty-five Years not being esteemed in the Number of the Crew. But their Lordships do hereby declare, that all Seamen so taken, shall be discharged when-ever they desire it after the 30th Day of November next coming, and shall have a Ticket made out for their Wages; and their Lordships are authorized by their Excellencies the Lords Justices to declare, that the Wages due on such Tickets shall be forthwith paid by the Treasurer of the Navy: And they shall besides have a Protection from their Lordships to secure them for one Month from the Press.
